

Unico Dealer Training Coming in March

Able Distributors + A-to-Z Sales Present:

Unico Dealer Training – March 2018

What:

Unico dealer training courses hosted by Unico Tech Jason Church covering the basics of the Unico system.

Don't miss this opportunity to expand your HVAC knowledge and, potentially, expand your customer base. The Unico System is a unique HVAC line and if you know how to install it, that sets you apart everyone who doesn't!

Topics Covered:

- How the system works
- Applications
 - Residential
 - Commercial
 - Spot Cooling
- How Unico differs from traditional systems
- System components overview
- Cooling + Heating with the Unico System
- Rules of installation
- Commissioning and installing a system

When & Where:

There are two available sessions, both of which cover the same content.
