

Meet the HCP Vacation Giveaway Winners!

The holidays have come early for three Able Distributors customers-the winners of the HCP Vacation Giveaway!

Running from September 1st through November 30th, the HCP Vacation Giveaway gave every Able Distributors customer a chance to win $1,000 spending money and airfare for two to anywhere in the continental U.S.

Originally, there was only to be one additional prize of $250 spending money, but because we received such a tremendous response from our customers we added a bonus prize of $250! This brings the total giveaway up to $1,500 + plus airfare between the three prize slots.

Without further ado, let's meet the winners!

First Place - Artur Kreczman of Artur Climate Control

Second Place - Ivan Bandura of I.B. Heating & Cooling Express

Third Place - Wayne Jett of Jett's Heating & Air, Inc.

On the behalf of Able Distributors, we would like to thank all participants for making this promotion a success. We'll have plenty more contests and giveaways for our loyal customers in 2017, so keep an eye on this space!

We would also like to thank all our customers at all our branches for making 2016 an excellent year for Able Distributors. Have a happy holiday season and be sure to stop back next week for our final blog post of 2016!
