Our Commitment To Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested.

The Information We Collect

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on the abledistributors.com website. At present, the only personal information we request and collect from our users is that provided by customers who wish to send us correspondence.

The Way We Use Information

We use the information you provide about yourself when sending correspondence to reply appropriately. We use this information only in the case where a reply is requested or seems appropriate and we use it only to send the reply. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to send a reply.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser that X number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that Y number of users from this country and Z number of users from that country clicked on a certain link, but we would not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Our Commitment To Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Our Commitment To Children's Privacy

Protecting the privacy of children is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 18 years of age, and no part of our website is deliberately structured to attract persons under the age of 18 years old.

How You Can Access Or Correct Your Information

Protecting the privacy of children is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 18 years of age, and no part of our website is deliberately structured to attract persons under the age of 18 years old.

You can correct factual errors in your personally identifiable information by sending us a request that credibly shows error.

To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.
